Your evening will commence in one of the most romantic and beautiful squares of Rome, where you will meet your local food expert and start socializing with Italy's favorite way to do so: the aperitivo. We will sit/stand in a near-by wine bar to learn about Italian conviviality, the value of eating together, sharing a meal with your family and friends, while sipping on amazing red wine (optional) and tasting cold cuts and cheeses. Our Rome Food tour continues in the Jewish Quarter, famous for its fried treats and rich history. Before we sit down to eat, we will take a quick tour of the area, basic information to understand the value and the historical and emotional connection of this neighborhood with our city. The tour will commence with some of the best Roman Jewish food the area offers. Your dining experience begins with fried starters done the Roman Jewish way including fior di zucca and fried artichokes. Wash it all down with a crisp glass of bubbly and cheers to your small group and the food tour. Ironically enough, street food in Rome is something old too. Even though world-wide this is a phenomenon that has really boomed in the last few years, Rome has had friggitorie and pizza al taglio since the early 60s. We had to include a few typical stops of Roman street food. Your guide will stop at one of the most delicious pizza-by-the slice spots in Rome and you'll take it to Largo Argentina, and while looking at the beautiful lit Roman excavations and hearing about Julius Caesar, you will be tasting this prominent Roman delish. Street food in Rome also includes supplì. A typical rice-ball with tomato sauce and juicy stringy mozzarella all to eat while walking through the beauty of Rome. After this we are ready for the main event: Pasta! On the Rome food tour you will have the chance to sample a variety of local pasta specialties. Delight in the history as you walk down narrow cobblestone streets towards Rome's spectacular Pantheon. With a spectacular view of this Ancient Roman Temple, you will have VIP reserved seats at this local joint that has been open for three generations. Here we will feast on fresh Italian pasta and learn the differences between noodle shapes and the sauces they are served with. Have you been wanting to sample a more adventurous pasta? Now is your chance! Let your expert food guide pick and choose dishes for your entire small group. The entire dinner will be accompanied by carefully selected quality wines, to continue to expand your Italian palate. Our final stop of your tour is for gelato or coffee.
